I lost my way

I lost track

My heart and all my money

The shirt off my back

Then I found a place

To lie and rest

Clear the cloudy skies of my mind

Clean up my mess

I'm not sure if this is prayer, or if it's plea

Beggin' or hopin' or my insanity

You're my first clean breath after the fire

You're that cool drink of water my soul requires

Are you the sunshine

Are you are the rain

You light my darkness

You wash my pain

You're I love you in a world of doubt

Fill me with somethin', I can't go without

I'm not sure if this is a prayer or if it's plea

Beggin' or hopin' or my insanity

You're my first clean breath after the fire

You're the cool drink of water my soul requires
